NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS) UNIT
JAWAHARLAL NEHRU COLLEGE, BOKO,
KAMRUP, ASSAM

The NSS Unit of J.N. College, Boko, stands out as one of the most dynamic and engaged social service units within the college. Operating under the auspices of Gauhati University, this unit has a rich history of providing diverse social services, all made possible through the commitment and enthusiasm of student volunteers. Since its establishment, the unit has actively engaged in a variety of community service initiatives, extending its impact both within the college campus and in the surrounding adopted villages, police stations, and local communities.

Students voluntarily join the NSS Unit, showing a commendable dedication to contributing to society while managing their academic responsibilities. The college appoints a well-trained Program Officer to oversee the myriad activities that the NSS undertakes, ensuring that volunteers are well-guided and supported in their endeavors. Each year, on the 24th of September, the NSS Day is celebrated, fostering a spirit of community and urging more students to participate in this noble initiative. Currently, the NSS Unit comprises 69 student volunteers, with 50 new recruits welcomed in 2022, all of whom are eager to embark on a journey of social change.

BIRTH OF N.S.S. :

NSS was founded in September 1969 during the Gandhi Centenary year as part of a broader visionary approach included in the Fourth Five-Year Plan (1969-1974), emphasizing the importance of youth participation in national development.
